

Summer Clinics: An Occupational Therapist and a Speech Language Pathologist lead this fun-filled small group clinic for children.

shutterstock · 189125327

Occupational Therapy Clinic

This group will use sensory- motor activities to improve strength, bilateral motor coordination, fine motor coordination, sensory processing, and motor planning.

- * Meets for 4 sessions for 60 minute clinics
- * Space limited to small groups of 6-8 children
- * Children must be between the ages of 3-5

Speech Language Clinic

This group focus on social communication, speech production, language concepts, grammar, and reading readiness skills. Skill sets will be addressed through games, music, art, and movement activities based on favorite childrens books.

- * Meets for 4 sessions for 60 minute clinics
- * Space limited to small groups of 6-8 children
- * Children must be between the ages of 3-5